A world map illustrating the global distribution of the four major world religions. The map uses a color-coded system: blue for Christianity, orange for Islam, green for Hinduism, and yellow for Buddhism. Christianity is the most widespread, covering large areas of North America, Europe, and parts of Africa and Asia. Islam is concentrated in the Middle East, North Africa, and parts of Central and Southeast Asia. Hinduism is primarily located in South and Central Asia. Buddhism is found in East Asia, Southeast Asia, and parts of Central Asia. The map also shows the outlines of countries and major bodies of water.
